

Fellowship of Kilmarnock Churches

September sees more churches open again, although under restricted conditions. In some cases compliance with Scottish Government guidelines requires a booking system so that social distancing can be observed. Please check individual churches' websites for details.

The Grand Hall Fellowship has resumed worship at 11.30am in the Pillared Hall. There is a short service of prayer, reading and preaching without music. All who have no Covid symptoms are welcome to attend. Those still shielding can watch live online.

Kilmarnock Baptist Church now offers live services in the church at 11am on Sundays.

Roman Catholic churches are celebrating Mass with limited numbers of parishioners in their churches and via video stream. Details, including booking to attend Mass in some cases, can be seen at <http://www.rckilmarnock.org.uk/>. St Joseph's Church, St Matthew's Church and Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church are also open for private prayer at times which can be seen on their newsletters at <http://www.rckilmarnock.org.uk/weekly-newsletters/>.

Winton Place Congregational Church has resumed Sunday worship services at 11am. Visitors are welcome to attend.

It is hoped that services at the Salvation Army will resume by the end of September depending on circumstances then. Distribution of food to people in need has now resumed. For details please ring 01563-523052.

Online Sunday services continue at the following churches.

Holy Trinity Episcopal Church The Episcopal Church of Scotland has Holy Communion services via their website - <https://www.scotland.anglican.org/broadcast-sunday-worship/>.

Kay Park Parish Church services can be seen at <http://kayparkparishchurch.org.uk/service/>. People who wish to listen without viewing can ring 01563-444426. It is hoped to re-open the church for worship before the end of September.

New Laigh Kirk's Sunday worship can be seen at <http://www.nlk.church/live.php> at 11am on Sundays and on this website later in the week. The church is open for private prayer from 12 to 2p.m. on Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday. Donations of food and toiletries for people in need can be handed in at the John Finnie Street halls on Mondays from 9am to 12noon.

St Kentigern's Church services can be seen on their YouTube channel and on their Facebook page at 11am on Sunday. It is hoped to re-open the church for worship before the end of September. There is a daily message from Rev. Anne McAllister and members of the congregation on YouTube and Facebook. Links to these are on their website at <http://stkentigern.org.uk/>.

Services from Central Evangelical Church are live streamed at 11.30am on Sundays at <https://www.youtube.com/ceckilmarnock>.

Galston Parish Church live-streams services on their Facebook page. The church is open for private prayer on Saturdays from 11am to 12 noon and on Wednesdays from 2 to 3pm. See <https://www.galstonkirk.com/> for details.